Prof. Greg Shaya

STUDY GUIDE EXAM #3

Rev. 4/7/2023

Directions:

The exam will take place at the beginning of class on Wednesday, April 12, 2023. Bring a pen. I will supply green books for the exam.

For the exam: Read all the directions! Watch the time carefully. You have thirty minutes for the exam.

To study for the exam: This second short exam will cover the material from Wednesday, March 8 through Monday, April 10 (from my introduction to dissent in Eastern Europe through our discussion of Goodbye Lenin! and the memory of the GDR).

I'll ask you a mix of questions. The exam will be one-part names and dates and details (do you know your facts) and one-part big ideas (how should we think about the large questions of postwar European history and these films we've studied?). To review, you'll want to read through your notes, review the textbook and the outside readings, consolidate your notes, and make outlines. You'll want to be sure that you can identify—and say a few words about—the key terms, names, dates, and sources. You will also want to think about how to answer the questions laid out below.

Part 1. Very Short Answer. (5 mins., 10 points)

Answer all of the following questions in a word or name or a phrase for each. (I'll only count correct answers). Choice of 12 questions.

For example:

1. Who was the chairman of the French Provisional Government in 1944-1946?
2. Why can't Dr. Hans Merten (in Murderers Among Us) love again?

Part 2. Short Answer. (10 mins., 10 points)

Answer two of the following questions in a few sentences each. Choice of four.

For example:

1. What was the political message of Open City?
2. According to William Beveridge, what should be the outcome of the war?

Part 3. Longer Answer. (15 mins., 20 points)

Answer one of the following questions in three short paragraphs. Give concrete details from lecture, discussion, textbook, or films. Choice of two.

For example

1. What was the impact of the Cold War on western Europe in the late 1940s?
2. How did Communists take control in Eastern Europe?

Possible Questions for Part 3

What was the nature of dissent in Eastern Europe in the 1970s and '80s?
How should we periodize the 1970s and '80s?
What were the divergent paths of Eastern and Western Europe in the 1970s and '80s?
How did democracy return to Southern Europe in the 1970s and '80s?
How did Great Britain navigate the 1980s?
What was the nature of 1989?
What forces made 1989 possible?
How have the traumas of history (such as the Franco regime, or the GDR) been remembered in film and history?
How were economics and politics connected in the 1970s and '80s?
